Biography

Jason Beesinger is an associate with Joyce + McFarland LLP. Jason has a diverse background of experience at the pre-litigation, trial, and appellate levels in state and federal courts: from representing plaintiffs in personal injury cases to representing multi-national companies and their directors and officers in large FCPA investigations, whistleblower/compliance allegations, and shareholder derivative suits.

Jason is a member of the Texas A&M Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2006. He attended the University of Houston Law Center, where he received the Mark Vela Endowed Scholarship, served as an Articles Editor on the Houston Law Review, and graduated magna cum laude in 2014.
